Big Delegation, En Route to Atlanta,
Makes Hit with Their "Tenmillion-dollar Band."

Stopping by on their way to the 1914
Imperial Council at Atlanta, Ga., a caravan of Mystic Shriners from California, in four steel trains, consisting of nobles, their wives and brass bands, helped to make yesterday an exciting day in the Capital's history of exciting events. The big event in the day for the Shriners was their grand parade to the home of Admiral George Dewey, where the four bands of the caravan, combined into one band of 129 pieces, serenaded the Admiral and Mrs. Dewey.

Admiral Dewey made a speech of congratulation to the Californias on the progress of their State and declared himself greatly honored by their visit. A silk admiral's flag was presented to the delegation by Mrs. Dewey. Col George Filmer accepted it on behalf of the delegation by Mrs. Dewey.
